America Jean Baudrillard

For sure, Baudrillard is one of the rock stars of postmodernism, probably as much for his tentative connection with The Matrix as for his pronouncement that the first Gulf War didn't happen. One surely wouldn't expect any typical travel writing or sociology from him, even in a book titled America and billed as a collection of traveler's tales.

Trump's fanciful, nostalgic vision of making America “great again” relies on precisely this sort of epistemic collapse.
