Stunningly written and peopled with the familiar characters of legend -- and brilliantly narrated by Tim Pigott-Smith -- Excalibur is a fitting and immensely powerful conclusion to one of the greatest-ever retellings of the Arthurian saga.

Why is this article entitled 'Excalibur: A Chronicles Book 3
Novel of Arthur'?

Neither of the other
two books in the trilogy has the additional clause in their article title, yet both have the words 'A Novel of Arthur' on their front covers. Surely there should be some consistency? I think the clause should be removed from this one.

From looking at the front covers of the books, I really don't think they're part of the title.
