Julian, an unsure 12-year-old lab worker, gets Leaper's message; his efforts to so something about it lead him into the desert, where he finds that motorbikes, like his own, are the culprits. Julian almost dies in a flash flood but also acquires a goal: to become a naturalist rather than exploit nature as his employers do.

I am a teacher because I survived teachers who made school unbearable, and I want every child to have a positive school experience. I am a teacher because I had great teachers who inspired me. I am a teacher because I know that a true understanding of life isn't measured on a test, but in the way we treat others.
